

INSTRUCTIONS

- If you or anyone in your family is a person with disabilities, and you require a specific accommodation in order to fully utilize our programs and services, please contact the housing authority.
- Complete the application in blue or black ink. Your information is important to us, Please PRINT Clearly
- All adults (persons 18 or older) must sign the application.
- Upon receipt, your application will be placed on a waiting list base on date and time and any preferences.
- NOTIFY US OF ALL CHANGES: You are responsible to notify this agency in writing when there is a change in your family composition or address changes. This agency will notify you in writing when your name is near the top of the waiting list. If you do not respond to that letter, your application will be removed from the waiting list and you will be required to reapply.
- Please provide good information to include phone numbers and email addresses to allow alternate contact.
- If you wish to check on the status of your application in the future, you may visit our office with a Picture Identification or you may call. If you call, we will verify your identification with your social security number.

Who is eligible to receive rental assistance?

An eligible applicant must qualify as a family. Family as defined by HUD includes, but is not limited to the following, regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status, a single person, who may be an elderly person, disabled person, near-elderly person, or any other single person; or a group of persons residing together. In addition, qualify on the basis of citizenship or the eligible immigrant status of family members.

The HACO must determine that the current or past behavior of household members does not include activities that are prohibited by HUD or the HACO policy. HACO does check for criminal history and sex offender list to include any prior debt owed to HACO or other federal housing programs.

A family's income must not exceed:

(These Income Limits are changed and published annually by HUD.)
Number of Persons who will live in unit:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Annual Income limits ($) for 75% of new Section 8 vouchers	23,200	26,500	29,800	33,100	36,580	41,960	47,340	52,720
Annual Income limits ($) for Public Housing & 25% of new Section 8 vouchers	38,650	44,200	49,700	55,200	59,650	64,050	68,450	72,900

What income is used to determine eligibility? All income from all sources received by all family members who are 18 and older to include gross wages, SSI, SSA, pensions, unemployment benefits, interest, dividends, TANF, child support, income received on a recurring basis to sustain life, etc. Applicants are required to report all income received within the household.

How much rent will I pay? Your portion of the rent will be based on a minimum of 30% of your adjusted income, no less than $50. The agency calculates all of your countable annual income less any required deductions.

What happens after I turn my pre-application in?

Your pre-application will be placed on a waiting list, based on any preference you are eligible for and based on date and time of application.

Once your name is near the top of the waitlist, you will be notified by U.S. postal mail with a letter to provide the form, Authorization to Release Criminal History. Once received, HACO will screen for criminal activity, debts owed to housing authorities, and sex offender list. If cleared, a follow-up letter will be sent for additional documentation to include the following:

- Income Documents, Family Composition, Waiting List Preference Verification, and Citizen Eligibility.
- Provide Social Security Cards for all household members have been received.
- Provide Birth Certificates for all household members.
- Other documentation as required for housing assistance.

It is important to start to gather social security cards, birth certificates, ID cards now to have ready when your name nears the top of the waiting list. You will be provided 15 days to return all required documents.

SECURITY DEPOSIT: We encourage you to be mindful of the security deposit as these amounts vary and are a requirement prior to moving into a housing unit. You will be responsible for any security deposit required by the owner/landlord as a result of tenancy.

PLEASE NOTE: Owners and Landlords of Section 8 programs (Section 8 Voucher, VASH, Mainstream, Moderate Rehabilitation, Emergency Housing Voucher, etc.), HOPWA TBRA, and Shelter Plus Care have their own screening process (Criminal Background and Landlord References, etc.) to determine tenancy. Owners and Landlords may charge an application fee.

Local Preferences

HACO has the following waitlist preferences for the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher and Public Housing. Please check all that apply to your current circumstance.

- Families that reside in, working in, or who have been notified that they are hired to work in Weber County.
- Families displaced by fire (excluding tenant caused fires), flood or storm or other government natural disaster within HACO's jurisdiction (Ogden City only). Such displacement must be recent and continuing; the displacement must have occurred within the last three months of the requested preference and must be verifiable by Red Cross or other government agency. Family must meet all eligibility requirements.
- Successful participants of a "transitional" housing programs which the agency has enacted a memorandum of understanding (MOU).

Verifications: The family must qualify for the preference at the time of application and at the time when the family is selected from the waiting list. The family must provide proper verification for preferences. If a preference cannot be determined the family will be placed on the waiting list in a non-preference status according to the date and time of the original application.
